MEDIA RELEASE

JRA OPEN FOR BUSINESS DURING FESTIVE SEASON

15 December 2016

For immediate release

The Johannesburg Roads Agency (JRA) will continue serving the residents of Johannesburg this festive season by repairing traffic signals and maintaining other road related infrastructure.

“The JRA will be fully operational during the festive period. On the public holidays 25th, 26th, 27th of December 2016 and 1 and 2nd January 2017 special standby teams will be on call to attend to any emergencies that may occur city-wide,” explains Dr Sean Phillips JRA Managing Director.

Eleven traffic signal repair teams will be working to ensure traffic signals are up and running city-wide. Seven Regional Maintenance and Standby teams will be available during the period to undertake normal maintenance work during week days and emergency work after hours and during public holidays (including weekends) respectively. Arrangements have been made in each region to ensure these services are rendered to the citizens of the City.

Residents and Councillors are encouraged to alert JRA of any road related defects including emergencies via our contact points including the City’s Call Centre: 0860 562 874, Twitter: @MyJra, email: hotline@jra.org.za as well as on the direct telephone numbers below:
